Dear Adrian,

The Universal Toe Stopper is something I will not jump without and I insist that all my staff use them as well. They have transformed many of my nervous clients into totally confident cross country riders.

They balance my whole leg on the horse, enabling me to be an even better rider. I believe that the Universal Toe Stopper is the most advanced piece of safety equipment currently on the market.

Kind regards,

Megan Jones

Nationally Elite Listed Professional Equestrian Rider, Level NCAS II Coach & Stud Manager

Megan Jones has ridden internationally to represent Australia in the sport of 3 Day Eventing on several occasions at World Cup level.

This past year she has won both the Melbourne and Adelaide International Horse Trials and was a winning team member of the Australian team in the Trans Tasman competition at the Adelaide Intl Horse Trials 2005.

Megan has been nominated by the Equestrian Federation of Australia to be on the highly esteemed Australian Elite Rider List, and is short listed to compete at this year's World Equestrian Games in Aachen, Germany (Aug.2005) Megan won the Bronze Medal for Australia wearing Toe Stoppers.

With the assistance of Toe Stoppers, a very integral piece of her gear, Megan's ambition is to win Gold for Australia at the 2008 Olympic Games.
